

Partnership Against Domestic Violence (PADV) has provided professional, compassionate and empowering support to victims of intimate partner violence and their children since 1977. We are the largest domestic violence organization in Georgia, with the mission to end the crime of intimate partner violence and empower its survivors. Over the last year, PADV provided services to over 15,000 individuals and reached an additional 34,000 people through community education and awareness. PADV was highlighted in the media 44 times, reaching 10,000,000 individuals. Here is how we impacted our community:

49,000 lives were supported by PADV, 23% more than last year.

Legal Advocacy

92% of TPO's applied for were granted.
5,244 individuals were assisted with legal advocacy services.

Services include help with filing for a temporary protective order, assistance with completing legal paperwork and accompaniment and advocacy through the often intimidating and complex judicial system.

Supportive Housing

111 people were served through PADV's community-based apartments, a 69% increase from the previous year.

This program offers rental, utility, childcare, employment, legal and educational assistance, as well as ongoing case management and support.

Teen Dating Programming

To have a strong impact on ending the crime of intimate partner violence, we must start with youth.

PADV reached 11,158 youth, parents and youth serving adults with our teen dating violence prevention program curriculum.

Shelter

81% of clients exited to safe housing.

PADV served 93,426 meals and housed 498 people - 255 women, 1 man and 242 children - for 31,142 bed nights in our two safe houses.

Clients sheltered set 913 goals to work on while in the shelter and achieved 90% of these goals.

Hotline

8,409 calls were answered by PADV's crisis line staff and volunteers.

Callers received safety planning, information, support, and access to shelter and community resources.

Community Outreach

1,094 people were served through community outreach.

Services include support groups, counseling, advocacy, follow-up, and safety check-ins.

Community Education and Awareness

PADV believes that education is the key to ending domestic violence.

Over 23,000 individuals attended a PADV community education and awareness event.
