

Position: Teen Dating Violence Prevention Intern

Supervisor: Coordinator of Dating Violence Prevention

Position Description:

Interns will assist the Dating Violence Prevention program in the implementation of curriculums, community outreach, and specialized projects.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Participates in public speaking engagements, community outreach events, and enhances community awareness
- Facilitates Healthy Relationships curriculum and Teen Dating Violence 101 in the community, minimum of 3 presentations per month.
- Completes assigned personal project that contributes to current program initiatives.
- Assists with annual Teen Summit planning and staffing.
- Generates original media content, including social media and blog posts
- Other duties as assigned.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must be enrolled in a degree program and pursuing internship requirements. This program is tailored towards undergraduate students.
- Must be able to work a flexible schedule, including evenings and weekends.
- Self starter who is capable of working alone, while also being able to work as a team player
- Appreciation and understanding of PADV's mission and goals

Compensation:

This is an unpaid position; however, a recommendation letter can be provided for those who successfully complete the program requirements.

Contact:

Jenani Srijeyanthan
Coordinator of Dating Violence Prevention
404-274-6678 – Cell Phone
Jenani.srijeyanthan.padv.org

Taylor Shropshire
Teen Empowerment Advocate
404-670-1705 -- Cell Phone
Taylor.shropshire@padv.org

